

2018 Denver Housing Survey

All In Denver believes in an equitable city where all people have the opportunity to prosper and thrive. To achieve that, Denver must be more strategic and bold in our housing agenda that reaches a wide continuum of households ranging from people experiencing homelessness, to very-low income working households, to young professionals.

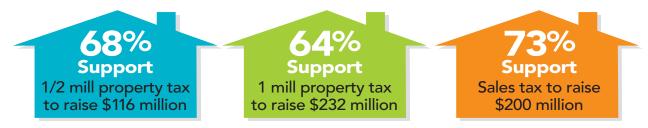

How serious a problem is Denver's homelessness? Serious 96%	How serious a problem is Denver's home affordability? Serious 94%
Somewhat serious 37%	Somewhat serious 30%
Not serious 2%	Not serious 4%
dk/na/refused 1%	dk/na/refused 2%

Strong Support for More Housing Funding

In All In Denver's 2017 survey of Denver voters, 74% supported the creation of Denver's affordable housing fund – but more resources are needed. In 2018, we asked:

"In concept, would you support increasing taxes for housing bonds?"

Learn more about All In Denver's Housing Agenda at www.AllInDenver.org

Strategies 360 conducted a live telephone survey on behalf of All in Denver, Close to Home, Colorado Coalition for the Homeless, Del Norte Community Development Corporation, Denver Foundation, Gates Family Foundation, Gorman & Company, Habitat for Humanity of Metro Denver, and the Urban Land Conservancy. 404 likely November 2018 voters in Denver were interviewed between February 15-18, 2018, with a margin of error of +/- 4.9% at the 95% confidence level. Learn more about this survey at www.AllInDenver.org.